SUPERIOR COURT RULES

RULE 58

(Applicable to civil jury cases except in Suffolk)

TRIAL LISTS WITH JURY IN COUNTIES OTHER THAN SUFFOLK

In counties other than Suffolk, for each year beginning the first Monday of September a jury trial list for each shire town shall be made.

The list shall be composed of cases placed thereon by order of court or marked for trial by a writing given to the clerk not later than the first day of August preceding. Said list need not be printed or prepared for distribution except to such extent as may be deemed proper by the clerk or ordered by the court.

Cases may be added to the list, at the end thereof, at any time by order of court or on the first Monday of any month by written agreement of all parties interested or seven days notice to all parties interested and the filing with the clerk of an affidavit thereof.

The clerk shall make an adequate short list of cases for the first day of any session, and at least four days before that day shall have such short list ready for inspection and shall mail a copy thereof to all counsel of record in the cases thereon; but failure to receive such list shall not be a sufficient excuse for ignorance that a case appears thereon.

When separate sessions for or including civil jury business are held simultaneously in the same shire town, the list, assignment of cases and other administrative matters shall be subject to the direction of such justice as the chief justice may designate.

Cases on one jury trial list shall not have precedence over, or be carried over to, a succeeding annual list, unless the court shall otherwise order.

RULE 60

(Applicable to civil cases without jury except in Suffolk)

TRIAL LISTS WITHOUT JURY IN COUNTIES OTHER THAN SUFFOLK

In counties other than Suffolk, for each session for or including civil business without jury a list of cases for trial or hearing on the merits without jury shall be made; but only one list shall be made for several sessions held simultaneously in the same shire town, and in such case the list, assignment of cases and other administrative matters shall be subject to the direction of such justice as the chief justice may designate. The list shall be composed of cases placed thereon by order of court or marked for trial by a writing given to the clerk at least twenty-one days before the beginning of the session, and shall be ready for inspection at least seven days before the beginning of the session.

Cases may be added to the list by order of court at any time or by written agreement of all parties interested given to the clerk not later than the second day preceding the beginning of the session, and shall be placed at the end of the list unless the court shall otherwise order.

The clerk shall make an adequate short list of cases for the first day of the session, and at least four days before that day shall have such short list ready for inspection and shall mail a copy thereof to all counsel of record in the cases thereon; but failure to receive such list shall not be a sufficient excuse for ignorance that a case appears thereon.

Equity cases, in counties having separate equity dockets, and divorce cases shall be segregated on the list and taken up at such times as the court may order.

Cases on one list for trial or hearing shall not have precedence over, or be carried over to, a succeeding list, unless the court shall otherwise order.

RULE 62

(Applicable to civil jury cases in Suffolk)

TRIAL LISTS WITH JURY IN SUFFOLK

In Suffolk there shall be made for each year beginning the first Monday of September, a general jury trial list, and for each month except August a special jury trial list of cases within G. L. c. 212 § 16 or within such other designation of the purposes of special or speedy trial sessions with jury in Suffolk as may be made by the chief justice under St. 1928 c. 228.

Said lists shall be composed of cases placed thereon by order of court or marked for trial by a writing given to the clerk not later than the first day of the month preceding. Said lists need not be printed or prepared for distribution except to such extent as may be ordered by the justice having direction of the lists.

Cases may be added to the general list, at the end thereof, at any time by order of court or on the first Monday of any month by written agreement of all parties interested or seven days notice to all parties interested and the filing with the clerk of an affidavit thereof.

Short lists shall be made by the clerk under the direction of the justice having direction of the lists, and shall be mailed to all counsel of record in the cases thereon; but failure to receive such list shall not be a sufficient excuse for ignorance that a case appears thereon.

The lists, assignment of cases, and other administrative matters in civil jury cases in Suffolk shall be subject to the direction, as to the general list, of the justice presiding in the first jury session, and as to the special list, of the justice presiding in the sixth jury session, except as may be otherwise ordered by the chief justice.

Unless the court shall otherwise order, cases on one special list not reached for trial shall take precedence of cases on a subsequent list, but cases on one general list shall not have precedence over, or be carried over to, a succeeding general list.

RULE 64

(Applicable to civil cases without jury in Suffolk)

TRIAL LISTS WITHOUT JURY IN SUFFOLK

In Suffolk there shall be made for every Monday, except in August, a weekly list of cases for trial or hearing on the merits without jury.

Said list shall be composed of cases placed thereon (a) by order of the court, (b) by written agreement of all parties interested given to the clerk not later than four o'clock in the afternoon on the Tuesday preceding the Monday for which the list is made up, or (c) by written notice to all parties interested seven days at least before the Monday for which the list is made up and the filing with the clerk of an affidavit thereof not later than four o'clock in the afternoon on the Tuesday preceding said Monday.

Cases for assessment of damage only shall be classified as such on the list and shall be heard at the opening of the court on each Monday, unless the court otherwise orders. Other cases shall, unless otherwise ordered by the court, be arranged on the list according to the time when placed thereon, precedence being given, however, on written request of any party, to cases within G. L. c. 212 § 16.

The weekly list shall be mailed to all counsel of record in the cases placed thereon; but failure to receive such list shall not be a sufficient excuse for ignorance that a case appears thereon.

Cases on one weekly list not reached for hearing shall take precedence of cases of the same class on a subsequent list, unless the court shall otherwise order.

The list, assignment of cases, and other administrative matters in civil cases without jury in Suffolk shall be subject to the direction of the justice presiding in the first session without jury, except so far as may be otherwise ordered by the chief justice.

BAR MOTHER AND CHILDREN

Disease Holds Up Entry to This Country

After journeying all the way from Aden, in Arabia, eagerly looking forward to establishing a home here, a mother and four of her five children found their way into the United States barred yesterday by the immigration authorities because they are afflicted with trachoma, dreaded contagious Econtagious disease.

Egyptian eye disease.

The woman is the wife of Abraham Joseph of New York, an American citizen of Arabian-Jewish birth. The youngsters are Roobaika, 7, who was given permission to land; Ishack, Roobain, Hanne and Shelaimy. The family arrived aboard the Furness line steamer Nova Scotia from Liverpool yesterday, and Dr. Daniel F. Maguire of the U. S. Public Health Service detected evidence of the eye disease and ordered the mother and children taken to the immigration station.

Years ago such a finding would have meant compulsory deportation from the United States for the unfortunate victims. Now, however, the law has been liberalized and the father arranged to post a bond for $750, covering cost of medical treatment for the family, to be done at Ellis Island, New York.

FEARS FIANCEE WILL NOT WAIT

Man Without Country Will Fight to Enter U. S.

Fear that his sweetheart in Baltimore, who has already waited three years for him, will not wait much longer if he remains a man without a country, yesterday prompted the launching of a campaign by the Polish-American citizens of Boston in behalf of Bernard Malkowski, 30, as he again sailed from this port on the steamer Steel Traveler without being allowed to set foot on American soil.

As the ship was leaving Boston for calls at New York and Baltimore before sailing again for the orient, Attorney Stanley W. Wisnioski, Polish consular legal agent in Boston, last night communicated with Dr. Sylvester Gruszka, the Polish consul general, in New York.

the Polish consul general, in New York.

He said he was asking the consul general to intervene in the case because of the fact that Polish citizens and the organizations composed of people of Polish descent are interested in learning just why the unwiking sailor is not allowed to land in some country or other.

The romantic angle to the strange case came to light yesterday, as the man without a country admitted it is a Baltimore girl he hopes to marry who has prompted him to continue his fight to land in the United States—and nowhere else.

The Director reported that Mr. Lovetts wefe stated that her husband was not ill and had not il. at one time he had some teeth extracted but that was some time past and he had completely recorreced. He was an good health and spirits, was a model husband, and, in her opinion, had the complete confidence of the community aid did by cellert work at his office. She had wever heard of any completent of his work. That the past directors, Mrs. Thay and 'huis Barry, throught highly of his work. She had no idea that anything was wrong with him or his work and feet their must be a misundustanding somewhere which could be cleared up. She promised to discuss the matter with him and have him send in reports on funding cases and the annual whort.

Within two or three days the annual report Ithe Spring fued office was received. Mr. hoveth sent in a report on several I the cases but their remained un reported some four cases on which littles Jinquiry had been sent

The Director then asked the Supervisor of Social Sewice to report on the most recent complaints and the plates of the situation. The supervisor reported that in regard to me complaint, the social worker at the Springfield place had reported that the file in question was given to Mr. Rovett, with some 56 other applications for first and second papers on September 3, 1937 and because postage was not available at the office he took the package home.

The supervisor spent several hours at the federal office trying to locate these 57 papers but they could not be found there. She again belephoned the Springfreed office and the social worker their informed her that the missing papers were hought to the office last week by Mrs. Lovett who did not wish her bushand to know she had them. She had found them in a deck where they had been placed during moving. altho the social worker had stated that the fapers were hongut to the office by mis. Forett at a time her husband was about from office ill, she later seated that Mrs. L'brett had taken them home again Mr. Lovett lunself stated that he had mailed the swelope containing these 51 blacks at Springfield this morning. The Director expressed her dispatis faction with the situation at Springfield motorly because I the constant complaints but because of the inconsistent statements made by the persons concerned. It reemed to han that the situelon was so
